

Everyone is Welcome!

F·A·C·T·S

Register early and save!

International Symposium on the Science, Art and Philosophy of Chiropractic

JUNE 11-12, 2010 • HOTEL PRESIDENT WILSON • 17 QUAI WILSON • GENEVA, SWITZERLAND

You will learn:

- Chiropractic treatment strategies that won 8 Tour de France victories
- Extra-uterine adaptation and birth's effects on the neonate
- Unique challenges of caring for the elderly
- Chiropractic health and the tensegrous matrix
- Chiropractic and the neurology of health
- Proper use of instrumentation
- Principles of musculoskeletal and spine MRI
- Technique workshops on adjusting the neonate, the elderly
- Chiropractic research in 2010
- and much, much more including case studies and research papers.
- 16 hours of solid practical information

EXCELLENT program with EXPERIENCED, DYNAMIC speakers

Dan Murphy, DC, DABCO
Internationally recognized speaker on the science of chiropractic.

Jeffrey Spencer, MA, DC
Former Olympian and chiropractor to champion athletes competing in Tour de France, PGA, Olympics, motocross, Nascar, and other sports.

Lora Tanis, DC, DICCP
Experienced practitioner and expert on chiropractic pediatric care. Chair of ICA Council on Chiropractic Pediatrics.

Brian Kelly, MSc (Chiro)
President of New Zealand College of Chiropractic and former president of the Australian Spinal Research Foundation, the largest chiropractic research organization in the world.

John Maltby, DC
Immediate past president of the ICA, experienced practitioner with one of the largest geriatric practices in the US.

Fabrizio Mancini, DC
President of Parker College and internationally recognized chiropractic leader named to the Wellness Revolution Hall of Fame in 2007.

Jamie Kowal, DC, DACBR
Experienced radiologist and instructor.

Presented by... The International Chiropractors Association (ICA) and the Foundation for the Advancement of Chiropractic Tenets and Science (FACTS)