

Building Bridges

Photo courtesy of Winslow Therapeutic Riding Center

Annual Super Conference on Chiropractic & Pediatrics is bigger and better in 2009!

A program packed with vital information to keep you on the cutting edge of your professional skills.

COLORADO SPRINGS • NOVEMBER 20-22, 2009

EXTRAORDINARY LINE-UP OF SPEAKERS

Brian Kelly, DC   Lora Tanis, DC, DICCP   Gavin James, BDS, MDS   Peter Fysh, DC, FICCP   Joyce Miller, DC, DABCO   Bill Moreau, DC, DACBSP   Jennifer Tow, IBCLC   Sharon Vallone, DC, DICCP   Kurt Larsen, DC   Laura Nunno, DC, DICCP   Joanna Schultz, DC, DICCP   Maxine McMullen DC, FICCP

Plus... Team of certified therapists/instructors from Winslow Therapeutic "Horses for Healing" Riding Center in Warwick, New York ... also several DICCPs on management of cases related to special needs, sports injuries, nutrition, neonates and more.

The program is divided into three different components, each one solid with new and valuable information important to the chiropractic practitioner caring for kids.

- Collaborative Care with certified instructors/therapists trained in hippo therapy for special needs kids; orthodontists, lactation consultants.
- Adolescent Care topics will focus on obesity, nutrition, sports injuries.
- 3 Technique Workshops (rotating) include SOT, extremity adjusting, and infant adjusting for the new practitioner.
- Special Workshop: Research 101

Hotel: The Broadmoor rated one of the best resorts in the world.

Special discounted rate with no resort fee for attendees. To register and to make hotel reservations go to:

www.icapediatrics.com or call
1-800-423-4690 (US and Canada)
1-703-528-5000 Ext 110

Don't Miss It!

20 Hours of CE credits will be applied for in states that accept out of state programs by Palmer College of Chiropractic.