

If you believe in any of the below, join the ICA where YOU can make a difference!

The ICA is for everyone — the experienced DC, the new DC, the student doctor, full- and part-time faculty

In 2002 the ICA is as committed to preserving the rights of the chiropractor and his/her patient as it was in 1926. It continues in its efforts to advance the chiropractic profession and to provide benefits and services to individual practitioners and students that will enhance their personal and professional development. ICA welcomes all chiropractors who believe in:

- maintaining chiropractic's unique identity as a non-therapeutic, drugless health care profession
- recognition of chiropractors as primary care providers
- chiropractic's fundamental philosophy of subluxation-based practice and the chiropractic adjustment as unique to the art of chiropractic

- the individual's right to freedom of choice in health care providers and direct access to doctors of chiropractic
- full inclusion of chiropractic in all public and private health care delivery programs
- clinical research to fully examine and document the effectiveness and potential of the chiropractic adjustment
- educating policy makers of the non-duplicative nature of chiropractic and the conservative, effective and drugless health care approach chiropractic offers the consumer
