

PEDIATRICS CONFERENCE

Dr. Maxine pins Dr. Tom Dickerson with his coveted diplomate pin during the recognition ceremony for new Pediatric Diplomates (DICCPs).

A surprise tribute was paid to retiring Pediatrics Council leader Dr. Maxine McMullen in the form of a video presentation titled, "Magnificent Maxine." ICA Pediatrics Council Vice Chair Dr. Sharon Vallone is seen getting the laptop to work!

Dr. Maxine is touched as she watches pictures of her life from the time she was a little girl in New Zealand to her many years in the U.S., unfold before her eyes.

Dr. Lora Tanis presents Dr. McMullen with a watch as a token of thanks and remembrance from the first DICCP class (1996).

New Diplomates get a well-deserved standing ovation.

Dr. Jacqueline Richards (right) uses the long arms of Dr. John Campbell to get the most she can for her "arms length" worth of raffle tickets for the free trip to the 2007 conference in Phoenix, Arizona.

Dr. Joan Fallon does a masterful job as auctioneer of raising the bids during the fund-raising auction for Kentuckiana Children's Center.
