ICA Celebrates 80th Anniversary with Gala Banquet at the Ritz in Pentagon City

The ICA concluded its Annual Meeting of the Board of Directors, Representatives Assembly, Students Congress and ICA Auxiliary, with a gala banquet to celebrate its 80th Anniversary. The banquet was held on Saturday, May 6th at the Pentagon City Ritz Carlton in the Washington, D.C. area.

It was a lively affair with more than 250 ICA members and friends from all over the US and Canada. The banquet was a huge success thanks to the generosity of sponsors — from individual doctors to state associations, colleges and vendors. Both Palmer College and Parker College sent their good wishes along with representatives from their colleges.

The evening began with a pictorial presentation of ICA's history and heritage, then an interesting talk by the US Ambassador to Romania, ending with a loud and lively auction with Dr. Joan Fallon serving as the auctioneer, ably assisted by President John Maltby and Central Regional Director Dr. Corey Rodnick as the spotters. Auctioned items included several chiropractic memorabilia including a shotgun once owned by Dr. Fred Barge that sold for $800.

"I want to thank all our sponsors and donors for their support," said ICA president Dr. John Maltby. "Because of their generosity we were able to have this event. It was a wonderful evening of fellowship and fun."

At its Annual Meeting the ICA Board of Directors passed a resolution to have an Annual Convention in 2007. ICA's Annual Convention had been discontinued in 2002. The 2007 Convention will be held April 28-29 at the Ritz Carlton, Pentagon City. Everyone is welcome, members and non-members. There will a continuing education program with several speakers, vendors, social functions and a gala banquet. Watch for more news about this event in the coming months.

Dr. Dan Murphy looks to see if he has the winning raffle ticket during the gala banquet at the ICA Annual Meeting. The raffle is an annual scholarship fund-raiser organized by the ICA Auxiliary and scholarship winners are announced at the Annual Meeting.
